Please note that the control is based on the actual product description and technical specifications and not by the HS Codes.

2 You are encouraged to use the new Product Code for your declarations via TradeNet™ with immediate effect. However, if the goods that you intend to export, transship or bring in transit are subject to control under the Strategic Goods (Control) Order 2007, and the date of departure is on or after 1 Jan 2008, it is compulsory to use the new Product Code for your strategic goods TradeNet™ permit declarations.
